

Building
a sustainable future for all

C20 SUMMIT 2021

Program

5, 6, 7 October

25 virtual meetings promoted by civil society organizations from all over the world to reflect on the international challenges, our commitments and G20's duties in light of human rights.

Follow the C20 Summit on www.civil-20.org

	Time (CET)	Rooms	Title - Promoted by	Panelist	Abstract
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 1	ZEROING-IN ON ASIA'S JUST ENERGY TRANSITION THAT LEAVES NO ONE BEHIND Promoted by: Fair Finance Asia	Chair: Bernadette Victorio - Fair Finance Asia, Yuki Tanabe - JACES/Fair Finance Japan, Herni Ramdhaningrum - Prakarsa Indonesia/Responsibank, Sreedhar Ramamurthi - Environics Trust India/Fair Finance India.	The side event will highlight the needs for just-transition in Asia to avert the disastrous impacts of energy poverty for the region's most vulnerable populations. Having a G20 leadership to strategically steer the Asian financial sector to stop financing fossil fuels and facilitate financing of renewable energy, to align with the Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs) is mandatory as well as it urges IFIs to accelerate institutional alignment towards just transition. Just energy transition in Asia and the role of the financial sector in developing strategic pathways for the upcoming Indonesian G20 Presidency in 2022 needs to be prioritized.
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 2	LEVERAGING NEW OPPORTUNITIES FOR INCLUSION OF CHILDREN AND WOMEN IN A DIGITALISED WORLD Promoted by: World Privacy Forum & Asociación por los Derechos Civiles (ADC - Association for Civil Rights)	Chair: Valeria Milanes - Association for Civil Rights (ADC), Argentina, Pam Dixon - World Privacy Forum, USA, Fauzia Viqar - Rah Center for Management & Development (RCMD), Pakistan, Ugonma Nwankwo - Center for Global Development, USA, Kemly Camacho - Sula Batsú, Costa Rica, Gabreal Odunsi - Paradigm Initiative, Nigeria, Miftah Fadhili - Institute for Policy Research and Advocacy (ELSAM), Indonesia, Pedro Hartung - Alana, Brazil.	Digitalization allows women and girls to access job opportunities, education tools, information and a wide range of services including healthcare. At the same time, digitalization has accelerated in the pandemic era, and now affects children's lives and their rights. In both cases, meaningful access to digital technologies can support all of them to realize the full range of their civil, political, cultural, economic and social rights. However, if full digital inclusion is not achieved, existing inequalities are likely to increase, and new ones may arise.
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 3	UNIVERSAL ACCESS TO EDUCATION AND GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP IN THE TIME OF Covid-19: STUDENT-CENTRED PERSPECTIVES Promoted by: European Students' Union	Chair: Matteo Vespa - European Students' Union, Zamzam Ibrahim - European Students' Union, Amilcar Sanatan - Global Student Forum, Samuel Sasu Adonteng - All Africa Students Union, Kallel Naveca - União Brasileira de Estudantes Secundaristas.	At the beginning of the pandemic, almost half of the world's student population were unable to access educational services. Social and economic inequalities that existed prior to the pandemic limited the ability of communities and different regions to pivot to digital learning platforms. The problems of an expanding mental health crisis, reduced funding for education, limited consultation with representative student bodies combined to exacerbate the vulnerabilities of students. The main topics will be explored from a student perspective, towards a definition of 'global citizenship' and the rights it should entail on education.
SIDE EVENT	1.30pm-2.30pm	ROOM 1	THE COOPERATIVE MODEL AS AN EXPRESSION OF CIVIL SOCIETY FOR AN INCLUSIVE AND SUSTAINABLE RECOVERY Promoted by: Alleanza delle Cooperative Italiane	Chair: Howard Brodsky - CEO and Chairman CCA Global, USA, Bruno Roelants - ICA Director General, Maurizio Martina - Vice Secretary, Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO), Osamu Nakano - Japan Workers' Cooperative Union (JWCU), Ignace Bikoula - Federcasse - ICA, Carlos Zarco - International Health Cooperative Organisation, Anna Manca - ICA Gender Equality Commission, Giuseppe Guerini - President CECOP-CICOPA Europe, Mauro Lusetti - President Italian Cooperative Alliance.	The contribution of the cooperative model as an expression of civil society to the implementation of the 2030 Agenda and sustainable development and its contribution towards economic growth to reduce poverty and inequality and providing decent employment as well as promoting gender equality. Cooperatives will share their story, best practices and build networks with other civil society organizations supporting the C20 and G20 agenda going forward.
SIDE EVENT	1.30pm-2.30pm	ROOM 2	THE HUMANITARIAN CRISIS AND THE WOMEN RIGHTS IN AFGHANISTAN Promoted by: Pangea Foundation	Chair: Simona Lanzoni , Fondazione Pangea Mahbooba Seraj , Afghan women's network executive chair, Mary Akrami , Afghan women's network executive director, Lisa Piper , ACBAR director, Orzala Nemat , research associate at SOAS University, UK.	Pangea Foundation started its activities in Afghanistan in 2003, working with women for human rights and socio-economic empowerment. Pangea continues its humanitarian work alongside the population. This panel will discuss what is happening in Afghanistan providing a framework of analysis on the situation of women, on the actual humanitarian crisis and on the new migration wave from Afghanistan to give input to the G20, the Italian Presidency and the international community to provide answers on the most relevant and urgent needs.
SIDE EVENT	1.30pm-2.30pm	ROOM 3	CLIMATE JUSTICE AND DEBT: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES FOR THE GLOBAL SOUTH IN A CONTEXT OF MULTIPLE CRISES Promoted by: Latindadd, Eurodad Jubilee USA APMDD (TBC), Afrodad (TBC)	Chair: Aldo Caliarì - Jubilee USA, Iolanda Fresnillo - Eurodad, Lidy Nacpil - APMDD, Carola Mejia - Latindadd, Jason Braganza - Afrodad.	Considering the current context of multiple crises, the side event will analyze the challenges for climate finance delivery in global South countries, from a climate and economic justice perspective, understanding the implications of debt and the opportunities that debt cancellation and/or the use of non-debt creating mechanisms could generate in the most vulnerable countries.
SIDE EVENT	3pm-4pm	ROOM 1	FUND CREATION TIREDNESS: WHAT IS THE ADDED VALUE OF A GLOBAL HEALTH THREATS FUND? Promoted by: World Vision Germany Action against AIDS Germany	Robin Montgomery - Developed Country NGO Delegation of the Global Fund, Christoph Benn - Executive director Joep Lange Institute, Christine Stegling - Executive director Frontline Aids (tbd/tbc), Kurt Frieder - President Fundación Huésped, C20 GHWG.	Covid-19 is threatening global health and changes the global health architecture. To address the existing challenges, the G20 High-Level Independent Panel on Financing the Global Commons for Pandemic Preparedness and Response is recommending the establishment of a global health threats fund with a proposed investment of 10 billion US$ per year for 5 yrs. With governments from the global North hoarding vaccines, discussing unnecessary 3rd booster shots and fortifying intellectual property regulations and countries in the global South, desperately trying to provide options for survival: "vaccine nationalism" and "vaccine apartheid" - are slogans to address the situation: a challenge to solidarity and to human rights.
C20 EVENT	3pm-4pm	ROOM 2	LOOKING FORWARD TO INDONESIA'S G20: HOW TO HOLD THE G20 TO ACCOUNT ON ANTI-CORRUPTION COMMITMENTS	Chair: Jean Scrimgeour - C20 Lead/Accountability Lab (AL), Danang Widoyoko - Transparency International, Indonesia, Dian Novianthi - C20 Anti-Corruption Working Group Lead, Indonesia, Sanjeeta Pant - Accountability Lab.	Corruption is now a central global policy priority and critical decisions are being made about the ways that governments can collectively manage what is a transnational threat to peace and prosperity. The Italian G20 process has made important progress around critical corruption issues including beneficial ownership and corruption during emergencies. However, in the absence of a comprehensive mechanism to do so, tracking and monitoring the progress of more than 100 commitments has been an ongoing challenge. This event will bring together members of the Indonesian government, leading CSOs and other anti-corruption experts to help shape thinking ahead of the 2022 G20 Presidency.

	Time (CET)	Rooms	Title - Promoted by	Panelist	Abstract
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 1	GCE - ABOVE US ONLY SKY: FREEDOM FROM HATRED AND FEAR TO BUILD GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION Promoted by: Global Campaign for Education (GCE)	Refat Sabbah - President of the Global Campaign for Education, Maya Goodfellow - Writer and Researcher, Luis Enrique López Hurtado - Intercultural Bilingual Education expert, Miriam Ekiudoko - UN Working Group of Experts on People of African Descent Sara Giménez Giménez - Spanish Congresswoman.	Fear and hate speech, prejudice and stereotypes against historically marginalized populations constitute serious obstacles to the construction of a global citizenship, as are omissions or misconceptions in the school curriculum. These problems threaten education quality, hinder school access and increase dropouts, especially when combined with other causes such as gender based discrimination and exclusion based on ethnic origin, disability and religion, among other. The proposed scope is innovative, identifying the international frameworks in which different countries converge. The comparative analytical highlights good practices and shared challenges.
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 2	GLOBAL CITIZENHIP AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENTS AS DRIVER TO SHAPE THE FUTURE Promoted by: CReA onlus	Chair: Iliaria Signoriello , Social Farming National Forum, Matteo Vespa , Member of the Executive Committee of the European Students' Union, Brando Benifei , Member of European Parliament, Marcela Browne , Head of Education Fundacion SES, Massimiliano Tarozzi , University of Bologna and University College London, Paola Berbeglia , AOI- Concord Europe, Eric Monceau - La Région Occitanie / Pyrénées-Méditerranée.	When crisis strikes, it is essential that we work together to confront issues that we have in common. This means thinking of ourselves as being citizens of the world, as well as of our nations and immediate localities, and considering these identities as mutual and co-constitutive. It is necessary to foster the dissemination of the concept of global citizenship education at the level of formal, non-formal and informal education, as a pre-requisite for the acquisition of each SDGs and to introduce this concept to all children, youth, and adults in every level of education and communication.
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 3	OPERATIONALISING ONE HEALTH: THE CASE FOR INVESTING IN ANIMAL HEALTH Promoted by: Action for Animal Health coalition	Chair: Dr Juan Lubroth - previously Chief Veterinary Officer at FAO (TBC), Keynote speaker: Keith Sumption Chief Veterinary Officer, FAO, Osman Dar , Member of One Health HL Expert Panel, Minakshi Prasad , Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, India, Syed Naeem Abbas , Advocacy Manager at Brooke, Pakistan, Anthony Nsoh Akunzule , Executive Director, Ghana Poultry Network.	The event leads to G20 recommendations in the pursuit of operationalising One Health: an increase in the numbers of animal health workforce as well as providing effective training and upskilling; access to a reliable supply of safe and effective medicines to treat animals, as well as vaccines to prevent zoonotic, and non-zoonotic disease; work with animal owners to support a global early warning surveillance system that proactively identifies risk; development, implementation and resourcing of national one health plans that encourage the pooling of resources between human health, animal health and environmental health.
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 4	RECLAIMING SUSTAINABLE INFRASTRUCTURE AS A PUBLIC GOOD Promoted by: Eurodad Society for International Development CoST	Chair: Petter Matthews - Executive Director, CoST, Luisa Mimmi - Senior Advisor, G7/G20 Unit, Ministry of Economy and Finance, Italy, Marco Rocha - Co-Chair of the G20 Infrastructure Working Group, Brazil (TBC), Adrian Chikowore - Policy and Research Consultant, Afrodad María José Romero - Policy and Advocacy Manager, Eurodad, Flora Sonkin - Policy Researcher, Society for International Development.	Sustainable infrastructure investments are touted as “the most promising strategy for delivering decent jobs and climate resilience” and as a key pillar of “building back better” strategies by many donor governments to face the Covid-19 pandemic, hence its high priority for both the G20 and the C20. Through an open discussion, this event aims to address some of the key questions that emerge when analysing the current trends in infrastructure development with such a systemic lens, in particular, what the challenges posed by an agenda focused on attracting private investment in infrastructure are, and what development model is promoted. The event aims to discuss on what basis it is possible to reclaim sustainable infrastructure as a public good.
C20 EVENT	1.30pm-2.30pm	ROOM 1	G20 AND RURAL WOMEN: CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR GENDER EQUALITY Promoted by: C20 Working Group, BRICS Feminist Watch, AIDOS, FEIM.	Priti Darooka - PWESCR International, India, Dewi Puspa - Aksil, Indonesia, Govind Kelkar - GenDev Centre for Research and Innovation, India, Fabiana Menna - Fundación Gran Chaco, Argentina, Patricia Chaves - Espaço Feminista, Brazil, Bertha Zúñiga Cáceres - Council of Popular and Indigenous Organizations of Honduras (COPINH), Honduras (TBC), Sibulele Poswayo - Gender Specialist and Social Entrepreneur, South Africa, Tsigie Haile - Organization for Women in Self Employment (WISE), Ethiopia.	Through this event, we aim to provide information about the realities and challenges faced by rural women to realise their rights to an adequate standard of living, to a life free of violence and harmful practices and to land and productive assets, food security and nutrition, education and health, inclusive of sexual and reproductive health and rights. At this event, the challenges and opportunities facing rural women and girls in terms of policies and actions to achieve gender equality will be discussed for greater commitment to ensuring that no rural woman or girl is left behind.
SIDE EVENT	1.30pm-2.30pm	ROOM 3	WHAT G20 SHOULD DO TO VACCINATE OUR WORLD? Promoted by: AIDS Healthcare Foundation	Chair: Stefano Vella (Italy), Manvendra Singh Gohil (India), Jorge Saavedra (Mexico/US), Allan Maleche (Kenya), Karine Duverger (Haiti).	The Civil 20 provides a critical and relevant platform for civil society representative to share their view and to advocate to the G20 countries. They must unequivocally pledge to do everything in their power to Vaccinate Our World. There is no more time for weighing the political pros and cons of suspending vaccine patents, mandating technology transfers to expand vaccine production, and donating billions of dollars for a robust, sustained global response to the pandemic. This is a matter of survival! Listen to our renowned speakers sharing their views on what more can G20 leaders should do in order to save billions of precious lives and set the world on a path to recovery.
SIDE EVENT	1.30pm-2.30pm	ROOM 4	UNDERSTANDING THE FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC REPERCUSSIONS OF THE PANDEMIC IN THE G-20 COUNTRIES. Promoted by: Observatorio Mexicano de la Crisis-OMEC (Mexican Observatory on Crisis)	Artemisa Montes Sylvan , Igor Lavrovski , Daniela Berdeja Ruiz , Davies Okombo , Myriam Vander Stichele .	After almost two years into the Covid-19 pandemic this event aims to reflect on recent transformations in the economic sphere of key G-20 countries, and their foreseen implications, to consider CSOs' actions towards shielding certain policy achievements (ie SDGs, environmental provisions) while pushing for other ones (fair trade, inclusive finance, social protection) by providing substance and context. This workshop based on a group discussion format will be the continuation of a conversation started last year in Saudi Arabia.
C20 EVENT	3pm-4pm	ROOM 1	CIVIC SPACE RESTRICTIONS IN THE ERA OF Covid: WHY IS DEMOCRACY AT RISK? Promoted by: RACI	Chair: Juliana Catania - Deputy Director, RACI, Josef Benedict - Researcher, CIVICUS, Jocelyn Nieva - International Center for Not-for-Profit Law (TBC), Arjun Phillips - Voluntary Action Network India(VANI) (TBC), Charles VanDyck - West Africa civil society Institute (WACSI), Anja Bosilkova-Antovska - Balkan Civil Society Development Network.	This event will provide an overview of the restriction in civic space that many countries faced during the pandemic, as we faced an increasing number of cases where States began to impose severe restrictions on core civic rights in response to the Covid-19 pandemic. The aim is to reflect on the current situation of the enabling environment for Civil society organizations, identify main threats to public participation through examples from different parts of the world, present available monitoring, re-reporting and advocacy civil society tools to foster an open civic space; everything with a view to exploring the immediate - and future- consequences of these restrictions in our democracies.

	Time (CET)	Rooms	Title - Promoted by	Panelist	Abstract
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 1	THE GLOBAL TIPPING POINT AND THE PROMISE OF LEAVING NO ONE BEHIND Promoted by: Oxfam Germany	Colette Solomon - Director, Women on Farms Project, Namit Agarwal - Asia Policy Lead- World Benchmarking Alliance, Harpreet Kaur - Business and Human Rights Specialist- UNDP, Deval Sanghavi - CEO and Co-founder, Dasra, Asanda Ngoasheng - Media and Communications Manager, Oxfam South Africa.	The event will be at the backdrop of the Global Pandemic and the global commitments made by the UN member states towards the adoption of "Leaving No One Behind" approach. It will be discussed on how the global pandemic has shattered many of the central assumptions on sustainability and how Covid-19 was bad news for many, in particular women, but it proved profitable to the privileged few. The session will focus on systemic exploitation, workers' rights to wages, social protection and will bring forth the conceptions and ever-increasing importance of "living wage" in such pandemic times of crisis.
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 2	PROCUREMENT FOR EQUITABLE SERVICE DELIVERY AND ADDRESSING CORRUPTION IN THE PANDEMIC: EXPERIENCES ON PUBLIC PROCUREMENT Promoted by: Paideia Civica Development Gateway	H.E Kivutha Kibwana - Governor of Makueni County, Kaduna State, Nigeria, Kristen Robinson - Head of Advocacy, Open Contracting Partnership, Alejandro Barón - Johns Hopkins University, Annie Norfolk Beadle - Policy Analyst OECD/South Asia Division, Alejandro Sanders - London School of Hygiene and Tropical Diseases/London School of Economics.	The event will bring together governments, CSOs, the private sector, academia and multilateral organizations to discuss how procurement can be used as a tool for equitable and sustainable service delivery for citizens and reduce risks of corruption. It will focus on the use of technology to achieve procurement transparency, collaboration through open procurement data, and ensuring engagement across governments, private sector and Civil society for equitable service delivery and reduced corruption. The pandemic has highlighted how, and now more than ever, the world needs to leverage on procurement measures to ensure that the needs of the most vulnerable strata of the societies are met.
SIDE EVENT	12pm-1pm	ROOM 3	A TIME OF CRISES: ADDRESSING HEALTH INEQUALITIES IN THE ERA OF CLIMATE CHANGE AND Covid-19 Promoted by: Action for Global Health	Nicole Redvers - Assistant Professor, Family & Community Medicine-INMED, School of Medicine and Health Sciences, University of North Dakota, John Otieno - Regional Advocacy Officer, Action Against Hunger, Kenya, Rhiannon Osborne - Climate Change and Health Co-chair, Students for Global Health, UK.	As the impacts of climate change and the regularity of global health crises increase and persist, this event will draw upon the interlinkages between these issues and the need to take an integrated approach to the G20's pillars of action – People, Planet, Prosperity. It will provide information about the realities and challenges borne from the intersection of climate change, Covid-19 and lack of UHC faced by people globally. In particular, it will highlight how inequalities are impacted and exacerbated by these crises, as well as the mechanisms and strategies for preventing and mitigating these crises, in a way that reduces inequalities and contributes to achieving the SDGs.
SIDE EVENT	1.30pm-2.30pm	ROOM 1	STRENGTHENING UHC ENGAGEMENT: A NEW HEALTH FOR ALL ADVOCACY TOOLKIT FOR CIVIL SOCIETY Promoted by: The Civil Society Engagement Mechanism for UHC2030	Justin Koonin , UHC2030 Co-Chair, Masaki Inaba , Africa Japan Forum, Samuel Matsikure , GALZ, Natia Loladze , Georgia Red Cross Society, Collins Masinde , Youth for Sustainable Development, Jennifer Ho , APCASO, Eliana Monteforte , Global Health Council, Aishling Thurow , CSEM, Carthi Mannikarottu , CSEM.	The Civil Society Engagement Mechanism for UHC2030 (CSEM) launched a Health for All Advocacy Toolkit to strengthen capacity, inspire action, and mobilize civil society. The Toolkit offers advocates a central reference point—a "one-stop shop"—for key information and tools to advocate for UHC, hold policy-makers accountable for their commitments, and build a broad social movement within civil society to support health for all. This event focuses on why civil society and communities should advocate for UHC, examples and lessons from successful advocacy efforts, and the Health for All Advocacy Toolkit as a resource to kick-start UHC advocacy.
SIDE EVENT	1.15pm-2.30pm	ROOM 2	FINANCING AN INCLUSIVE RECOVERY Promoted by: UNICEF	Natalia Winder Rossi - Director, Social Policy & Social Protection, UNICEF, Elisabetta Cervone - Senior Advisor, Italian G20 Presidency, Finance Track at the MEF, Marco Ricci - Chair of G20 Development Working Group, Riccardo Moro - C20 Sherpa, Joanne Bosworth - UNICEF, Chief, Public Finance, Local Governance and Urban (TBC), David Archer - ActionAid, Member of the C20 Finance WG, Marcos Neto - Director, Finance Sector Hub, UNDP, Zouera Youssoufou - CEO, Dangote Foundation, Maria Jose Romero , Eurodad, Member of the C20 Finance WG (TBC), Martha Phiri - Director, Human Capital, Youth and Skills Development, AfDB Group.	The event will highlight issues in promoting inclusive, sustainable and equitable recovery via public and private finance, with the aim of identifying issues for the forward agenda of the G20 – under the Finance Track, the Development Working Group and the C20. Potential issues may include: opportunities and mechanisms for supporting and tracking inclusiveness of recovery efforts and longer-term public investments including: How to link potential SDR reallocation to inclusive social spending; Enhancing monitoring and global reporting on social investments and equity. Review of evidence and good practices on the role of private sector in social sectors. A recurring event on inclusive social spending.
SIDE EVENT	1.30pm-2.30pm	ROOM 3	HUMAN-CENTERED GOVERNANCE FOR DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION Promoted by: Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE)	Chair: Louisa Tomar - Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE), USA, Felippa Amanta - Center for Indonesian Policy Studies (CIPS), Indonesia, Lourdes O. Montenegro - World Benchmarking Alliance (WBA), Netherlands, Paola Gálvez - Digital Regulation, Presidency of the Council of Ministers, Peru.	This event seeks to bring together practitioners and experts from Indonesia, Tunisia and Uganda to discuss private sector and civil society efforts to promote democratic governance and incentivize business contributions to tackle our greatest digital challenges. The core of the discussion will focus on how local and global business and civil society can work cooperatively with government to ensure inclusion, economic resilience, and digital rights are core to our shared future. These insights will help inform C20 recommendations to the G20 on digital economy priorities.
C20 EVENT	3pm-4pm	ROOM 1	AMIDST COVID-19: PUTTING THE LAST MILE FIRST Promoted by: Fundación Huésped, Global Health Italian Network, Global Fund Advocates Network Asia-Pacific (GFAN AP), Italian Association for Women in Development (AIDOS), and co-organised with Africa Japan Forum (AJF), Global TB Caucus, Impact Santé Afrique (ISA), and WACI Health.	MingHui Ren - Assistant Director General for UHC, WHO, Zolelwa Sifumba - Clinical Research Fellow at African Health Research Institute, South Africa, Lucica Ditiu - Executive Director of Stop TB Partnership, Switzerland, Lucas Josué Nuñez Saavedra - Designer Regional Youth network of Youth living with HIV, LAC, Chile, Julitta Onabanjo - Director for Technical Division, UNFPA, Daniel Marguari - Executive Director of Spiritia Foundation, Indonesia, Peter Sands - Executive Director of the Global Fund, Switzerland, Kurt Frieder - President, Fundación Huésped, Rachel Ong - Regional Coordinator, GFAN AP, Stefania Burbo , C20 Chair.	With nine years left to attain 2030 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), it is ever more urgent to ensure that communities of key, marginalised and vulnerable populations, and women and girls are at the centre of global health strategies and responses, even as the Covid-19 pandemic continues to ravage world economies and health systems. Within this context, support to the Health Architecture – the UN system, and to financing mechanisms and institutions such as the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria in achieving UHC and gender equality through strengthening health and community systems – including access to sexual reproductive health and rights services is ever more important to ensure that we leave no one behind by putting the last mile first.
C20	4pm-4.30pm	ROOM 1	CLOSING SESSION	C20 FINAL COMMUNIQUÉ PRESENTATION	Presentation of the C20 Final Communiqué that will be shared with the G20 Italian Presidency and all the G20 members